

NOTE: Give telephone number including area code and complete address for each person, even if it is the same as in the previous year's journal. Fax numbers and E-mail addresses may be included with the telephone number information for the church, but these listings should precede the church telephone number listing. For the pastor line, if applicable, please list spouse's name after pastor's name. (Show start date and spouse name, if applicable, for any other pastoral staff listings.) Only categories which have information typed after them will be printed in the church directory section of the district journal.
